FARM LIVESTOCK RULES AND REGULATIONS

1. All Entries must be submitted to the Secretary using the appropriate Entry Form within the specified Closing Date.
2. All Stock Exhibits must be obtained from the Exhibitor's own Stock and must have been in the possession of the Exhibitor on or before 1st JUNE the year of the Show.
3. No animal can compete for more than one of the Society's Premiums, except in the case of Championship Classes and Group Classes.
4. Each Exhibitor will be entitled to Admission Tickets, and they or their designated Livestock Attendant should remain with the stock under their charge until the close of the Show.
5. The Livestock Attendant on behalf of Exhibitors must be acquainted with all particulars required to be certified regarding the Stock in his charge.
6. All exhibits must be in their allotted space on the Showground by 9.30 a.m. and must remain in place until 4.30 p.m. Any exhibits leaving the Showground before the specified time may forfeit their prize money.
7. All Bulls over 12 months must be secured by a ring in the nose and with chain attached or they will not be admitted into the Show Ring; and no Bull of 2 years old and upwards shall be eligible for a prize unless a certificate (if required) can be produced that he has served 10 cows within the preceding 6 months. No cattle will be admitted without ties or headropes to secure them within the Livestock Area.
8. All Stock Exhibits will be distinguished by a number, corresponding with the list made out by the Secretary. No Cattle will be admitted into the ring without the provided Neck Card.
9. All Livestock Exhibits should be available for judging and the judges will be directed to withhold any Prize when they shall be of the opinion that there is not sufficient merit, or that the animal is not properly classed. No one is allowed in the Judging Ring except the Official Judge and Steward and Livestock attendant.
10. Objections as to the age or qualifications of any exhibits must be made in writing and lodged with the Section Director, together with a deposit of £5, within 15 minutes after the completion of the judging and not later than 2.30 p.m. on the day of the Show, and such objections will be considered and decided if possible by the Judges and the Committee of Inspection before the close of the Show. Any other objections must be lodged with the General Secretary within 7 days with a deposit of £5, and will be finally settled by the Farm Livestock Committee at their next meeting. In the case of an objection being sustained, the deposit will be returned.
11. Prize-winners, unless previously disqualified, will be paid by the Secretary within one month after the Show. Any Prize-winner not having received his Prize within the time stated is requested to apply to the Secretary.
12. No expense or risk will be incurred by the Society in the reception or returning of Livestock Exhibits and the Society will not be liable for any loss or damage caused to any Exhibit.
13. Any persons offending these Rules will forfeit all awards, if any, that he might be entitled to.
14. Any formal disputes which may arise shall be submitted to the General Secretary of the Society and will be passed on to the appropriate Committee.
15. All Exhibitors must have adequate PUBLIC LIABILITY Insurance.
